DEFENDANTS' FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION TO PLAINTIFF UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendants, the State of Texas, Rick Perry, John Steen and Steve McCraw, by and through the Attorney General for the State of Texas requests that you identify and produce the documents and items requested below for inspection and copying and deliver copies to counsel for Defendants. Please serve your responses and any objections on the undersigned attorneys on January 4, 2014. This request is continuing in nature as provided by Rule 26(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

DEFINITIONS

The following terms have the following meanings, unless the context requires otherwise:

1. Parties. The term “parties” includes Plaintiffs, Defendants, and Intervenor, as well as a party’s full or abbreviated name or a pronoun referring to a party, and, when applicable, his agents, representatives, officers, directors, employees, partners, corporate parent, subsidiaries, or affiliates. This definition is not intended to impose a discovery obligation on any person who is not a party to the litigation.

2. Person. The term “person” means any natural person, a business, a legal or governmental entity, or an association.

3. You & your. The terms “you” and “your” means the United States of America or any agent, department, agency, or other entity acting on its behalf or under its authority including but not limited to the Department of Justice, the Department of Defense, the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services, the Department of State, the United States Social Security Administration, the Department of Veteran’s Affairs, the United States Census Bureau, the Department of Homeland Security, and Eric H. Holder, Jr., Attorney General of the United States and his agents, representatives, attorneys, experts, and other persons acting or purporting to act on Eric H. Holder, Jr’s behalf.

4. Material. The term “material” means all documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things. The term is synonymous with and equal in scope to the terms “documents,” “electronically stored information,” and “tangible things” in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a)(1). A draft or non-identical copy of a document, electronically stored information, or a tangible thing is a separate item within the meaning of this term.

a. Document. The term “document” means information that is fixed in a tangible medium, such as paper. It includes, but is not limited to, writings, drawings, films, charts, photographs, notices, memoranda, diaries, minutes, correspondence, books, journals, ledgers, reports, worksheets, notes, printed e-mails, letters, abstracts, audits, charts, checks, diagrams, drafts, instructions, lists, logs, resumes, and summaries.

b. Electronically stored information. The term “electronically stored information” means electronic information that is stored in a medium from which it can be retrieved and examined. It includes, but is not limited to, all electronic files that are electronically stored.

(1) “Electronic file” includes, but is not limited to, the following: electronic documents, voicemail messages and files; e-mail messages and files; deleted files; temporary files; system-history files; Internet- or web-browser-generated information stored in textual, graphical, or audio format, including history files, caches, and cookies; computer-activity logs; metadata;

(2) “Electronic information system” refers to a computer system or network that contains electronic files and electronic storage.

(3) “Electronic storage” refers to electronic files contained on magnetic, optical, or other storage media, such as hard drives, flash drives, DVDs, CDs, tapes, cartridges, floppy diskettes, smart cards, integrated-circuit cards (e.g., SIM cards).

c. Tangible thing. The term “tangible thing” means a physical object that is not a document or electronically stored information.

5. Communication. The term “communication” means the transmittal of information in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries, or otherwise.

6. Relating. The term “relating” means concerning, referring, describing, evidencing, or constituting, either directly or indirectly.

7. And & or. The connectives “and” and “or” should be construed either conjunctively or disjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope.

8. SB 14. The term “SB 14” means Texas Senate Bill 14, 82d Leg., R.S., ch 123, § 3, 2011 Tex. Gen. Laws 619, including all companion and predecessor bills filed during previous sessions, whether regular or special, of the Texas Legislature, and all alternative bills or proposals, whether filed or not, relating to Texas Voter ID.
